Hey family I'm an addict named Casey!

Thanks for allowing me to be of service this past year! Service isn't always convenient but damn am I grateful to stay connected and serve narcotics anonymous.

Our community fellowship development coordinator will be doing a presentation at fan on September 1st.

We still haven't heard anything back from the GT county jail from the training that some of us completed.

Dakoske and detox are good! Let me know if you are interested in H&I service.

No phone calls this month.

The website is solid and up to date! If you have a flier or event to add to the calendar on the webpage please contact Megan a or Mike c.

If you have any schedule updates please contact Jen s.

Our fellowship development coordinator went to brethren last month and plans on going to irons this month.

We have the NA stamp that we ordered. We are excited to stamp the 55 books that have been ordered for jails in our area as well as slightly out of our area.

Thanks for letting us serve!!!!
