Hannah

RCM Report.

$200 to Rob C and Zack W. to attend a meeting.

Activities Report;

Mike Christina

Attendance 5. Visual attendance probably due to staying stacking events back-to-back.

Open positions Co chair, Co treasurer, and secretary

Last two events went very well both had love.

From the last activities we had a $300 for both Home group challenge and Labor Day we spent all but around $40 these were not fundraisers and Mike will bring the remaining money from this in October we ordered eight pizzas for elections snacks and Home group challenge hot dogs burgers buns water and condiments for Labor Day plates and silverware.

Halloween dance plan for October 28th at pine hall and TC.

then you cost $350 this does not represent a $35 discount from the owner.

the cost plus the plus the cost of supplies for the fundraiser requires a budget of $700 check can be made to Christina who is our treasurer if you have any questions feel free to call and text or page me thanks for letting me serve.

Public Relations;

We had elections last week and we have a coach here in Co secretary positions open.

we have a $15 budget request for Zach W for gas.

we have a celebratory we recovery reach out at the at the library at 6:00 PM Tuesday come and support and show recovery works.

Thanks Richard B

Retreat committee:

Dave outgoing chair and Megan incoming chair.

hello family,

well another retreat has come and gone this year we had terrific weather great attendance fantastic speakers and a good time had by all. we had a big roast that turned out great and no bees.

I want to thank the committee for their hard work and dedication. I know next year's retreat is in good hands with our new chair Megan.

we did a pretty good job of not buying too much merchandise so our leftover numbers are six hats 5 hoodies and 13 shirts.

hopefully our numbers may match Hannah reported I show a current retreat balance of $3935.80 with 120 dollars in the 7th tradition that Kathy found in her purse that will bring our balance to $4055.80 leaving $1500 in the retreat account would mean an area donation of $2555.80.

we have been informed that cost of sites and rooms is going up next year so the next Monday will need to decide if we raise the cost of our to our members or fund the raise and absorb the increase. I want to say it has been an honor and privilege to service chair of our 25th retreat again I am grateful for the great community and all the good work they have done.

In loving service,
Dave
